TOWN MEETING OCTOBER 25TH

The Board of Selectmen have issued a call for a Special Town Meeting, to be held in the Herbert C Barrows Auditorium of the High School at 7:30 pm on Oct. 25th.

The final date for submission of articles for the warrant will be Sept. 27th at 4:30 pm. One hundred signatures are required to put an article on the warrant.

The Regional Vocational School will be one of the articles for the warrant, it is expected.

Representative Fred Cain made a special appearance at the Selectmen's meeting, Monday night.

Mr. Cain informed the board that he has found a means to build a new bridge at Nichols Street. He read from his file of correspondence, which told the Selectmen, for instance, that the bridge now in use dates from 1889, and that, under the law, while the railroad is responsible for maintenance, it is not required to widen the bridge, which is only 14 feet wide between wheel guards, and is located on a curve.

Rep. Cain told the board that by petitioning the County Commissioners it would be possible to get $40,000 towards the construction of a new bridge.

The Ways and Means Committee of the Legislature would allocate $80,000 toward the building of a new bridge, he said. That would leave $40,000 to be paid by the town, on a cost estimate of $160,000.

The new bridge, for which he had the estimate, would be 42 feet wide, with a 30 foot roadway, and two sidewalks, each taking six feet. The Load Limit would be 14 tons, instead of 6. The bridge would be constructed of concrete and steel.

The Selectmen talked of putting in an article for $40,000, in the warrant for the coming Special Town Meeting, and unanimously, on motion of Selectman Bender, voted thanks for a 'job well done'.

THE PARKER STREET PLAYHOUSE: Every summer the residents of Parker Street organize their youngsters into a small theatre group, and have a performance for the neighborhood on Labor Day.

Last year the play was Cinderella, and this year it was even better with The Wizard of Oz. Thirty or more children took part, playing to 65 youngsters and 25 not-so-youngsters, in the back yard of the Foley home.

The Monkey is Gary Garrett, the Tin Can Man is Sharon Foley, and the Lion is Linda Smith. Some of the other children who may be seen taking part are Dorothy Jean Connell, and Bobby Hughson (in black)

BOARD OF HEALTH CLINICS

The Wilmington Board of Health will hold a series of three clinics for adults over 18 years of age, at the Wildwood School, between the hours of 10 am and noon, on Oct. 17th, Nov. 14th and Dec. 12th. There will be no charge at the clinics.

Dr. Gerald Fagan, Public Health Physician, will be in charge of the clinics, which will provide immunization against Tetanus and Diphtheria.

The basic immunization consists of three injections, one month apart followed by a booster, one year later. After that adults need boosters every ten years.

Dr Fagan says that the clinics are a part of a program which began last spring, when an educational program was launched urging residents of Wilmington to check up on their Tetanus-Diphtheria immunizations, and to see their family physician if they needed basic or booster immunization.

Dr Fagan also stated that the Board of Health conducts a monthly immunization for pre-school children, the first Tuesday of each month from 9:30 am to 10:30 am at Villanova Hall.

Planning Board

The Wilmington Planning Board will meet next week in the Middlesex County Bank Building (the old Hiller House).

Chairman Austin Rounds told the board (a full meeting, with Mrs. McKie, the new member, in attendance, even though not yet sworn in) that the Town Manager and Fred Jaeschke are making arrangements for the equipping of the room with furniture.

Tuesday night's meeting was in the Town Manager's office, after a meeting in executive session with the Board of Selectmen. It was marked by the number of persons who appeared to discuss plans, etc but had neglected to fill out the questionnaire which the Planning Board insists be used, to save time. Those who had not filled out the form were not interviewed.

The Ernest Ardolinos, of Broad Street received bad news from the Planning Board.

For some time they have been making some changes in their land ownership. The changes involved a Board of Appeals hearing.

Tuesday night they appeared with a plan of their land, which showed a lot 125 feet wide, and 160 feet deep, in an SRA area (22,500 sq. ft.)

The Planning Board informed the Ardolino family that the plan submitted could not be signed, as their was not enough area shown.

The Ardolino family left the meeting to see about a Board of Appeals hearing.

Attorney Alan Altman and John Gulbord of Avco appeared to tell the board that Avco is going to seek to rezone the old Barrows house lot to business, just to 'square off' the Avco property.

The two men reminded the board that in the last instance where Avco sought to have land rezoned, the firm was unable to tell the purpose, other than that it wanted the land to be zoned as was the rest of its property. Since then the land that was rezoned several years ago is now the Avco tennis court.

The point of the story was that

Avco was not seeking to erect an industrial building on the Barrows house lot.

Robert Stevens of Eastern Realty appeared with some Land Court plans of land in the Beacon Street area. The land was shown in 25 foot lots, and the board, instead of signing it, took the plans under advisement.

Mr Stevens told the board that he was the owner of Eastern Realty while his father was the owner of Tower Realty.

Kenneth Scribner of Peabody, the owner and developer of Esquire Estates, in North Wilmington, appeared to discuss the possibility of his 'taking over' a proposed development off Federal Street, near the Maple Meadow Brook.

The development was proposed originally by two other men, who were unable to satisfy the Planning Board as to their compliance with drainage requirements. Danny Gillis told Scribner that it was 'the wettest plan I have seen'.

Scribner was willing to sacrifice five of the proposed 26 lots, as being too wet.

He was advised to have a Civil Engineer prepare proposals on how the land was to be drained, before he spent too much money.

The board voted, on motion of James Banda, to make their services available to the Hospital Committee of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, insofar as any information that the Board might have.

Rounds told the Board that the proposed new Sub Division Control Regulations, being prepared by Planner Sam Snow, are now complete, except for specifications on street construction.

The board instructed Town Engineer Al Savignac to prepare some specifications for the purpose.

The new regulations do not require a town vote, to be put into effect, the Board was told.

Al Savignac told the board that he had walked the length of a ditch off Marcia Road, part of the drainage system for the proposed Marcia Road extension, and that he had found that it was not wide enough in places. The owner of the development had been notified he said.

Rounds reported that he and Gillis had had a discussion with the Chairman of the Finance Committee. That gentleman, he said, is anxious to have the Zoning By Law brought up to date.

On motion of Jim Miceli the board voted not to assign any planning to Planner Sam Snow until next week, pending a consultation with the firm of Edwards and Kelsey, who are being retained to help develop a planning program.

In the discussion Banda said that in order to use '701 Money' (Federal Matching Funds) the board would have to employ larger firms than that represented by Planner Sam Snow. Mr. Snow, Banda said, does not like to work with that type of work.

Miceli moved that a letter be sent to the Town Manager commending the Sanitarian for his work in the area of new developments of land in Wilmington. This brought up a long argument that lasted over half an hour.

Typical of the statements that were made was one by Mel Bloom: 'You don't expect someone to do his job for his salary! What has he done above and beyond his duty?'

The final vote was 2 to 0, in favor with three members abstaining. The meeting was not over until after 1 am.

PBC Meeting

Harold Shea got the Yellow Hat

Ralph Currier of the Permanent Building Committee was presented with a gorgeous yellow construction inspector's helmet by committee member Bob Barry Monday night, -- 'so the committee will remain intact'. Shea remarked that such a hard hat is just what he needs for PTA meetings, and Currier courteously made Shea a gift of the practical hat, as the color went so well with his complexion, and he was going to need it for the coming work on the West Intermediate School.

North School

Legal action has been instituted by the Town Counsel because of the leaky condition of the roof of the North School.

A letter from Town Counsel Philip Buzzell was read at the meeting, advising the committee of the action.

Articles

Two articles have been prepared by the Town Counsel for the coming Special Town Meeting, with special reference to the proposed public library.

The first article will ask for a vote to authorize the Selectmen to purchase the old St. Thomas lot for the Library Site.

The boundaries, according to the wording of the article, will be as determined in the current case in the Massachusetts Land Court.

The article will ask for a transfer of $15,000 from the existing balance of the sum originally voted for the purchase of the site, back in April 1962.

The second article to be submitted will ask the town to vote to authorize the building of the library by the PBC.

Flag Pole

Mention was made that the Woburn Street school needs a flagpole. Barry made a rough estimate of $125 for a metal one, 25 feet high, and about $30 for a nice, good-looking cedar pole of the same size.

West School

Architect Guarino reported that he had met with the president (Mr. Cappozola) of the White Construction Co. Cappozola had been told, Guarino said, of the great dissatisfaction of the committee with the unexplained delays in construction of the WIS, and that the PBC had given orders to notify the bonding company, and further had proposed to take over the construction of the school.

Mr. Cappozola, Guarino said, had requested a meeting with Michelson and Guarino to talk things over, and had also claimed that the steel would go up, on the site, of the 20th of the month.

Currier remarked that they had had five days since Guarino and Cappozola had talked, and that they still haven't put any more people on the job!

Barry said that it was up to the White Company to chase the sub-contractors, as Guarino excused the lack of activity to tardiness on the subcontractors' schedules -- 'not up to the PBC to do so'.

Currier: They've got one guy up there - running compaction tests - it's ridiculous!

Guarino said that he would, personally, like to see the roof put on. Barry: Why aren't they doing it?

Currier: (sadly) A beautiful summer gone to waste! - One rainy day and they will want a month's extension. All they do is run a tractor back and forth - read White's letter stating the cement work is to be finished by Sept. 1 - it's a lie - they didn't do it!

Michelton summed up by saying that the letter (notice to the bonding company) should go, regardless of any other promises made by the general contractor.

(There is a 100% performance bond for the WIS).

Woburn St. School

It was voted to pay outstanding bills, on the Woburn Street School, upon approval by the architect, to the sub-contractors, with duplicate signatures of the subs and general contractors.

Library Board

Mrs. Neilson, Miss Allen, Mrs. Chipman and Ralph Kelman joined with the PBC at this point to discuss the cost of the new library.

Guarino reported that he gave the plans to a professional estimator, who had replied with a letter giving the rough estimate budget cost, for the library, of $25.50 per square foot.

A PBC member said that 'it should be taken into consideration that the estimate is on the 'high' side, and that this rough estimate is based on a rather luxurious construction - for example, an economy could be made by substituting another type of shingle for the slate roof shingles listed on the original plans.

Kelman queried how much more would it cost to have a full basement? to which Michelson said, after some figuring that it would cost $25,000 plus, in construction costs for the rest of the plan.

Mrs. Neilson asked if it were always cheaper to build up, rather than down? - Always, was the consensus.

Guarino mentioned that this was a 'budget estimate' and it is high to cover all contingencies.

Barry remarked that he didn't think slate roofs were so much better -- harder to repair, and asphalt shingles last 20-25 years.

Kelman mentioned that McNiff, (the consultant), had said that he thought $22' rather low for this area. A discussion was made of various library costs since the last few years, and it was brought out that the loss of productivity in construction over the years has contributed to the rise in cost.

Currier mentioned the possibility that: 'If you don't put it in now you won't get anything from the Federal Government later on'.

Guarino said that when 'we get to the working plans there are a lot of economies that can be made, tiles, ceilings, etc.'

There was a discussion of a library brochure, and Kelman jokingly mentioned to Guarino that the elevation he plans to have of the building would look very nice in water colors.

The estimated time of construction was placed at one year, and the maximum reimbursement to be expected from the Federal Government 25%.

The figure quoted in the budget estimate would bring the total construction to close to $800,000.

Next Monday the Library Board is to meet with the Selectmen to describe their project.

The meeting adjourned at 10:05 pm.

St Thomas School of Religion Starts Saturday

The St Thomas School of Religion, operated for the Catholic children of Wilmington, has had several changes in its operating agenda, from that of last year.

The Elementary School of Religion will begin on Saturday, in Villanova Hall, with Grade 2 in the old St Thomas church. Classes in Villanova Hall will include Grades 3, 4, 5 & 6.

Classes start at 9 am and end at 10:15 am, (10 am at old St. Thomas.)

Bus transportation has been provided in a limited degree. The bus will start on Forrest Street, go to Burlington Avenue, Chestnut St., Lowell St., West St., Woburn St., to N. Wilmington, and then down to the church via Middlesex Avenue. There will be a small charge.

George Simmons of Strout Ave. is the principal of the Elementary School. Supervisors are: Grade 6 Mrs. Jean Doucette; Grade 5 Mrs. Jean Kritter; Grade 4, Mrs. Winifred Barry; Grade 3, Mrs. Betty Cavanaugh.

The Sisters of Notre Dame supervise the activities of Grade 2 together with Mrs. Marguerite Hanson.

The Junior High School of Religion, for children who are in grades 7 and 8, will begin their classes on Tuesday evening, September 21. The classes begin at 7 pm and end at 9 pm. They are held in the church hall.

The Junior High School is now in its third year. William Mason of Woodland Ave is the principal. He has 12 or more teachers, and no class is expected to exceed 20 pupils. Seventh grade classes lead towards confirmation, at the end of the year.

The High School of Religion will meet on Monday evenings, from 7 to 8 pm. The first class will be on September 20th.

The classes are for all Catholic students in grades 9, 10 and 11 in Wilmington High School, plus those Catholic students in Grade 12 who cannot attend Release Time classes because of their High School schedules.

The High School Release Time program is undergoing changes because of the growth of the High School itself. It has become difficult to schedule Release Time classes which do not conflict with High School classes.

Grade 11 children will no longer participate in Release Time. Only those children in Grade 12 who can have the time on Friday afternoons will participate.

Release Time classes, last year, were for one half hour, at 1:30 pm. In order for the Seniors to participate, this year, they must have had their parents sign a form which will be provided by the High School.

There will also be a class in the church, on Sundays, after the 8:15 Mass, for those children who are unable to attend the Monday evening School of Religion.

The Monday evening classes of the High School of Religion will be in the Church Hall, for grades 9 and 10, and in Villanova Hall for Grade 11. Classes are to be kept small.

Three of the Augustinian Fathers from Austin Prep have been added to the staff of the High School of Religion this year. They will teach boys in grade 11. The rest of the staff is made up of lay teachers.

For the first time in St. Thomas Church, grade one pupils will be taking part in an organized school of religion.

The classes are to be held in private homes, at times to be designated by the teachers, after school on weekdays, or on Saturday mornings.

Registration and teacher enrollment is now going on. The church expects to announce the opening date, and other details, late in October.

There is a registration fee of $2 for all classes, to cover the cost of textbooks.

The Church, again this year, is to conduct a Teacher Training Course. Over 125 teachers are taking a part in the program.

The course will be conducted in two parts, each 15 weeks long, and 1 1/2 hours a week. Beginning in October the first course will be the Doctrine Course. It is believed the classes will be held on Thursdays, with perhaps a morning class for the ladies, who may find this time better suited to their purposes.

A Center of Exceptional Children is being proposed by the Archdiocesan CCD for Wilmington and the surrounding area. The Priests of St Thomas are asking that parishioners who can assist, because of training or experience, to register with the church.

Adult Discussion Groups are also being organized for the winter's activities in the church. The groups are informal, there are no dues, and the meetings are held about every two or three weeks. Larry and Jean Doucette of Oakdale Road are in charge of the groups.

School Dance Classes

Registrations for the dance classes sponsored by the Women's Club are now coming in. The Committee suggests that those who plan to pay in three installments should register as soon as possible. The deadline in September 24, as classes are being formed now for the first lesson on September 29. Chairman Mrs. William Traer may be contacted at 658-4522 for information.

To date, 2160 invitations to participate in the classes have been sent to parents of boys and girls in grades 6 through 12. If anyone in these grades has not received the invitation with the registration informations, etc., please notify Mrs. Traer.

Mr. Russell Curry of the Curry School of Dancing in Boston is Chairman of the National Council of Dance Teachers. Mr. Curry, the dance instructor, has noted that sixth graders are at an ideal age for learning to dance. They learn faster, are more eager and willing to listen, and are not bothered by the distractions and adjustments that older children sometimes have.

Cuoco Golden Wedding Celebrated

Mr and Mrs Eupleo Cuoco, 18 Dunton Road, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on August 14th. A 5 pm Mass was celebrated by Father Edmund Croke of St. Thomas, and a magnificent reception for over 400 relatives and friends was given at St. Anthony's Hall in Woburn.

The Cuocos were married 50 years ago in the Sacred Heart Church, Boston. Their 10 children and 23 grandchildren were present at the celebration, which was a very gay occasion complete with orchestra for dancing, and a catered supper.

The head supper was decorated in glittering gold - floral centerpieces, candelabras, table cloth, and napkins.

At the head table were the ten Cuoco children and mates, along with their parents: Mr and Mrs John Cuoco, Mr and Mrs Ernest Mirasola (the former Ann Cuoco) Mr and Mrs Gus Cuoco, Mr and Mrs Joseph Cuoco, Mr and Mrs William Doyle (the former Eleanor Cuoco), Mr and Mrs Albert Cuoco, Mr and Mrs James Cuoco, Mr and Mrs James Antonella (the former Rosalie Cuoco), Mr. Edward Cuoco --all from Wilmington, and Mr and Mrs Kenneth Neagle (the former Deloris Cuoco) of Alexandria Virginia.

Chargers topped by Cambridge

THE WILMINGTON CHARGERS: Pop Warner Football League, for youngsters.

Cambridge trounced the Wilmington chargers, the Pop Warner football team, last Sunday, by a score of 34 - 8 in an exhibition game at the high school field.

At the half, Cambridge led 12 to 0 when Arnold Dobson scored from 5 yards out in the 1st period and Jim Silva went around his own left end for a 6 pointer 50 yards away in the 2nd period.

Cambridge dominated the 3rd period when Jim Silva scored again from 13 yards out. Kevin Adams added the two points by rolling out to his left into the end zone. Arnold Dobson scored again late in the period by intercepting a Charger pass from 25 yards out. Kevin Clark added the 2 points thus making the score 28-0.

The 4th period found Cambridge scoring again when Gary Neal tip toed his way through the Charger team from 35 yards out. The point after was missed.

The Chargers came to life with 5 minutes left to play when Mike Esposito found Bill Gustus for a 50 yard pass play to the 8 yard line. After recovering their own fumble, Mike Esposito went around left end for a score. The points after found Steve Catalano faking nicely to the half back and passing to Billy Gustus.

The score was not an indication of the calibre of play exhibited by the Chargers. Connie Barry has the boys hustling and with some tightening up of the defensive end positions, the Chargers should show up well when they are the hosts to Saugus next week at the high school field at 1:30 pm in the League opener.

The boys deserve your support as they will be the high school representatives of the future, so why not come out next Sunday and cheer them on.

Letters

Dear Larz,

A letter to Mr. Anonymous. Did you sleep well last Friday night, September 10, after you struck and killed our dog as you sped back from the liquor store?

You were seen you know, but you did a good job and broke his neck so there wasn't much blood and it saved washing your Jaguar. Mercifully 'Charley' died instantly and suffered no pain.

I know you are from out of state but I hope the friends you were visiting will save this for you to see.

I can't help wondering, Mr. A., if you would have stopped had it been a child. However, witnessing this cowardly act, I am extremely doubtful.

Lastly, Mr. A., can you tell me how you explain to a broken-hearted five year old why the man had to kill his dog?

Happy dreams, Mr. A.

Mrs. Ralph Lux
17 Dadant Dr., N. Wilmington

Dear Larz,

Would you please publish this letter.

Dear Dr. & Mrs. MacDougall, As you both have been so faithful through all these many years to those who needed you and trusted your unfailing judgement to bring them back to their former health.

If ever a human being walks in the foot-steps of the 'Great Physician' - it is the faithful doctor like yourself who cares for the many lives of patients, not only in day practice but in his heart as well.

This is the type of Christian service that no amount of money can ever pay for. It is a gift from God given to man.

May the loving Christ be very near to you through these testing hours of your illness.

We wish to add our prayers for your recovery.

From the faithful friends and patients.

Very truly yours,

Mr & Mrs Carl Sarica
136 Grove Ave., Wilmington

WILMINGTON ASSISTS ANDOVER

The Wilmington Fire Department assisted Andover's Fire Department, on Sept. 3rd at 11:30 am, in a fire which occurred at the Fiske Chemical Plant, off Ballardvale Street.

The street is in Wilmington, but the plant is in Andover. A tractor and some brush were burned.

Planning Board

TM Richard Henneberger told the board that he was appointing Mrs Madelyn A. McKie, of Woburn Street, to the Planning Board, for a five year term, to fill one of the two vacancies. The appointment was made as of Sept. 14th. The TM is still considering candidates for the other opening.

House Bill 3938

Joseph Ring, Chairman of the Board of Registrars requested that the Selectmen write a letter to the two legislators representing Wilmington, and request a 'No' vote on the Voter Registration Bill, House 3938, which would allow registration of voters by canvassing Registrars. Mr. Ring's objections were based on the expense involved, and the possibility of dishonesty.

The board split, in its vote. Mrs Drew, and Selectmen Black and Bender voted in favor, and Selectmen Niles and LaRivee against. (Cain, later, told Ring, in the Town Hall, that he had voted against the bill).

Jurors

George W Boylen Sr. 22 Williams Ave, and D Weldon Burton of Woburn Street were drawn as Jurors, for the Civil Session of the Superior Court in Lowell, starting on Oct. 4th. Ernest Crispo, Hopkins St., and Rose Rexford of Lowell Street were drawn for the Jury Pool in Cambridge.

Bob Peters

Robert Peters, Town Accountant who had served as temporary Town Manager this past summer, was given a personal vote of thanks by the Selectmen, and, on motion of Selectman Bender, his annual salary was increased $300. The vote was 3 - 0, with Bender, Niles and LaRivee voting.

Jack Quinn

Jack Quinn of Woburn Street, the chairman of the Conservation Commission, discussed with the board a request that his board and others be notified of available lands which might be sold at public auction by the town.

He wanted his board, the Water Board and others to be in a position to take action to retain lands they thought may be needed by the town.

Charles Black told Quinn that since the records of all tax title lands are available, the various agencies could research the records, to see what lands they may wish to retain.

He further said that the Selectmen had not had a sale for five years, but the board could always, right up to the last moment, withdraw from a sale any piece of land it wished.

Quinn told the board that he did not know that the records were available, that he had asked the Board of Assessors and was unable to get information, but that the thoughts of Mr. Black were an excellent idea. With agreement thus reached no action was necessary.

DAV Hall

Richard E Dunn of Grove Ave. appeared before the board to complain of what he termed the drunkenness and disorderliness of the DAV Club, which is across the street from his new home.

Dunn claimed that the actions of people at the club was a constant source of irritation to himself and some of his neighbors.

Selectman Black suggested a meeting with Mr Dunn, the DAV Commander, and the Selectmen.

Selectman Bender added that the commanders of the two other veterans organizations should also be invited, and a meeting was set tentatively for next Monday night.

Taxi License

Frank Melvin, of the Wilmington Taxi, appeared before the board to request two additional taxi licenses.

Mr Melvin was recently awarded a contract to transport disabled and other children, to and from schools by the Wilmington School Committee, and said that he needed the extra cabs to continue his regular business.

The issue was complicated by a need for revision of the regulations governing taxicabs in Wilmington. After a long discussion Melvin was granted an additional license, and was told the second would be withheld pending the revision of the regulations.

SELECTMEN'S MEETING
(Fr. Page Nine)

Felice Vitale

Felice Vitale of Woburn Street, who attends all Selectmen's meetings, and has frequently voiced his opinions to the Selectmen, with or without permission, appeared before the board to protest the alleged abridgement of his right to free speech during the Selectmen's meetings.

Mr. Vitale had appeared before the board some weeks past, and made a request for a ruling by the Town Counsel, and still later had informed the board that he intended to sue, if he was given a favorable ruling by the Attorney General, from whom he had requested an opinion.

Mrs. Drew, Chairman, had just received a letter from the Town Counsel on the subject, which the other Selectmen had not, as yet, seen. Bender was asked to read the letter, by Mrs. Drew, and in a loud voice.

The letter said that no person had the right to address any board without the permission of the board and that if an obstreperous person persists, he can be ejected from the meeting, and if necessary incarcerated until the meeting is ended.

Vitale told Mrs. Drew that he didn't care what the letter said, he was still going to speak up if he had something to say. But he returned to his chair visibly shaken.

Parker Street

George Garrow of Parker St., a retired town employee, told the board that he had been unable to sell his home because of junk across the street. The Selectmen agreed to request a report from the Health Officer and Fire Chief, and the Building Inspector too, through the TM. Bender emphasized that there was no point to having a zoning law, if it was not properly enforced.

Perambulation

The law requires that Selectmen of towns, every five years, meet with Selectmen of their abutting towns, and together 'perambulate' the bounds, to be certain that the town bounds are in place, as the law requires. It is a law which dates from Colonial times.

The Senior (Older) Town sets the date for the Selectmen of the Junior Town to appear.

The Selectmen received a letter from Andover, (founded in 1644) setting the date of Saturday, Oct. 23rd for a perambulation of the bounds between Andover and Wilmington.

Tewksbury requested a date, and Wilmington's selectmen, as the Senior Town, set the date of Nov. 13th.

Niles and Bender will do the perambulating for Wilmington with Andover, and Black and LaRivee will do the perambulating with Tewksbury.

Board of Appeals

Bruce McDonald and H Richard George were voted as Associate Members of the Board of Appeals.

Mr. McDonald, for some years a full member of the Appeal Board had to resign recently because of business pressures, but at the time expressed the hope he could be retained as an associate.

Mr. George, who lives on Lawrence Court, is an attorney, with a well known meat firm, in Boston.

Student Government Day

The League of Women Voters, in a letter has requested that the Selectmen give permission to conduct a Student Government Day, to tie in with the annual Town Meeting and Elections.

The possibility of having students 'take over' the government of the town for a day was mentioned. Mrs. George Robertie is to be in charge of the project.

The Selectmen found the project to be 'very worthy' and granted permission.

Burlington Avenue

A second hearing on the repairs to Burlington Avenue, under a Chapter 90 project, is to be held in the County Commissioners office in Cambridge, on Oct. 5 at 10:30 am. Henneberger was told to notify the residents of the area of the hearing.

Brochure

TM Henneberger, speaking of the long delayed Industrial Brochure, told the Selectmen that Kevin McKelvey (a student of government, Ed), has been working on the preparation of the brochure. Henneberger wanted to know if the Selectmen still wished to 'go ahead'.

He was told to go ahead with an investigation or study of the firms who could prepare such a brochure

Ainsworth Road

Henneberger brought up what he termed to be 'the Ainsworth Road problem' - Bob Evans, owner, with problem' (Bob Evans, the owner of the land which is Ainsworth Road, has never been paid by the town Ed) seeking instructions or comments from the Selectmen.

The board discussed the problem somewhat ineffectually. (The TM is now preparing an article for the warrant of the annual Town Meeting - to put the question to the voters).

Phillip Park

Atty Bill Diamond of Reading, representing Phil Park of Ballardvale Street, appeared relative to the damages suffered by Mr Park on his land, when the street was relocated.

Diamond told the board that $500 had been offered by the town, and that, because of a misunderstanding on his part the time for acceptance of the offer, or for suit against the town had expired.

He had, he said, advised his client that $500 was a fair offer, except that the driveway was now too steep, as a result of the rebuilding of the street.

Selectman Black felt that it was not fair of the town to deprive a citizen for damages done, and there was an unanimous vote to pay the money to Mr. Park. The TM was instructed to see if anything could be done by the town to alleviate the driveway situation.

United Nations Day

October 24th was proclaimed to be United Nations Day, in response to a letter from President Lyndon B Johnson, and further the board referred the matter to the Supt. of Schools, for any further suitable action.

Power Commission

At the suggestion of Lloyd Bender the Selectmen agreed to come to the next meeting ready to nominate members of the newly created Electric Power Commission.

Welfare Money

The Welfare Department is running short of cash the Selectmen were told.

At the end of August the Department had about $3000 available, and at the end of the year there would be a deficit of about $17,000, unless more money was provided.

Bender recalled that there had been a request earlier in the year, and that the Finance Committee halved the sum requested, with a promise that the Welfare Department could come back in October, when it should have an idea of the money needed to last out the full year.

The board agreed to have Walter Coleman, the Welfare Agent, at the next meeting, and to ask the Chairman of the Finance Committee, Dick Barry, to be present to discuss the best course of action.
